Four $75 “supplemental” scholarships needed:

The Washington School for the Deaf High School ASB (Associated Student Body) would like to select four high school student representatives to attend the Deaf Teen Leadership Camp at the Cispus Learning Center in Randle, WA, near Mt. Rainer from June 27-July 1, 2009.

The full fee is $150 per student – each student will be responsible for raising the matching $75 from other sources (family, local organizations and businesses).

The activities will include a challenge course, leadership skills development activities, outdoor activities, team building skills, self-advocacy skills, and much more.
